Sing to the Lord a new song,
for He has done marvelous things;
His right hand and His holy arm
have worked salvation for him.
The Lord has made His salvation known and revealed His righteousness to the nations.
He has remembered His love and His faithfulness to Israel;
all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Shout for joy to the Lord, all the earth,
burst into jubilant song with music;
make music to the Lord with the harp,
with the harp and the sound of singing,
with trumpets and the blast of the ram's horn—
shout for joy before the Lord, the King.

—Psalm 98:1-6 NIV

LISTENING

Over the years as I have taught Confirmation Classes I have had to call on a student and asked: "Are you listening?" After their affirmative answer I would ask: "What were we talking about?" Many times they would have no idea. Other times students could repeat back to me exactly what I was talking about. They can appear to be distracted and maybe distract everyone else in the room, but at the same time still be listening. I don't think that's the case for most of us. When someone is talking to us it is important to focus on them for their benefit and for ours.

A singer-songwriter by the name of David Wilcox once responded to a question from the audience about how he composes songs. He said there are three aspects to the process: a quiet room, an empty page, and the question: "Is there something I need to know?" That's a wonderful approach for us as we seek the Lord's plan for our lives each day.

I wish I could follow that plan more consistently. When we recently went on vacation with our entire family of fourteen our son, Ben, planned our activities well. We usually had a day of touring and sight seeing and then we had a day off. That gave all of us a break to do what we wanted. Some went shopping, some went into the pool, a couple rented mopeds, and I spent a lot of time reading, catching up on work and just having quiet time.

That was different for me. Usually my life is a myriad of activities. I move from one to the next. Most of my Bible study time is message, Sunday School, or preparation for some other classes. This summer as Wilcox suggested, I have had a quiet room especially since there has been no preschool. I have lots blank paper, but I don't know that I have asked this question enough: "Is there something I should know?"

Throughout Jesus public ministry, He took time to be alone in prayer. After feeding five thousand people with five loaves of bread and two fish the Bible says: "Immediately after this, Jesus insisted that His disciples get back into the boat and cross to the other side, while He sent the people home. After sending them home, He went up into the hills by Himself to pray. Night fell while He was there alone." Matthew 14:22-23. If the Lord Jesus saw the need to be alone with His Father, how much more we need a daily time of solitude to pour out our hearts, meditate on His Word and ask Him what we need to know.

So what do we need?

1. A quiet room or place - anywhere where we can focus on the Lord without distractions.
2. An empty page - an empty page, which also means a receptive mind, a willingness to listen
3. Asking the question: "Is there something that I should know?" Lord, speak to me by Your Spirit, Your written word, and the assurance of Your direction.

From that quiet hillside, Jesus came down into a violent storm, knowing exactly what His Father wanted Him to do.

Pastor Tom

Dear Friends in Christ,

The much anticipated apoc-eclipse has come and gone—and we survived! I had to chuckle at an e-mail that my dad forwarded to me that showed the “updated” eclipse route. Instead of a straight line through Idaho, the path took a sudden detour south into Nevada and Utah—avoiding Idaho altogether—before resuming its course eastward. I guess someone in Idaho wasn’t looking forward to welcoming the crowds, even for a short while.

Many of you have gone out of your way to welcome my family and me to Idaho. Thank you! It hasn’t exactly been a straight line between here and there—a lot of back and forth, some of which will continue until the whole family is settled in the same place. With so many unknowns and new beginnings, there’s nothing quite like a move that prompts trust in God! What a great privilege and reassurance it is to be able to trust God with the major—and minor—decisions in life. As the well-known Proverb 3:5-6 promises, “Trust in the Lord with all your heart and do not lean on your own understanding. In all of your ways acknowledge Him and He will make your paths straight.” I want you to know your kindness and hospitality has helped to straighten our family path and we are glad to call Friendship Celebration our home.

The call process has been a long journey for you—three years! I’m sure there were some unexpected bends in the road. Yet in the end, what we consider curves and hills are actually straight lines for God. He always guides and provides. Discipleship views the unknown aspects in life as invitations to trust God’s lead with all our heart. Our straight path of trusting is not about following the crowds or even creating them; it’s about following Jesus.

I thank the entire call committee for their work and the congregation for their welcome. I look forward to joining Pastor Tom, Brett and the staff and getting to know the people, the road map thus far and begin building relationships. That will take some time—as there are many of you—but for now, just know I’m glad and thankful to be here. My first official day in the office will be September 11 and plans are underway for installation—a Friendship first!—on October 1. I’m excited about the future and I hope you are too because I have a feeling God has good things up ahead!

In Christ,

Pastor Matt Henry

FC Course: Your Testimony A First Step in Sharing Your Faith

The goal of this course is to help participants develop their own personal tool for sharing the gospel with others and connecting them to Jesus. See John 4: 39, 42, and 35.

Many of the Samaritans from that town believed in Him because of the woman's testimony...and because of His words many more became believers...They said to the woman, "we no longer believe just because of what you said; now we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this man is really the Savior of the world...I tell you, open your eyes and look at the fields! They are ripe for harvest.

Participants will learn about what Jesus and the Word of God have to say about sharing their faith and testifying about what it means to be a Christian. They will also have a clearer understanding of their own unique gifts and experience in Christ, and how to share these spiritual gifts when the time is right.

The workshop will use a "Testimonial Guide" to outline the key steps in developing a Christian testimony by relying on the individual's unique and personal relationship with Jesus. More than learning a skill, participants will gain confidence in sharing their faith in all of life's circumstances based on their personal relationship with Jesus.

As Paul writes to Philemon, "I pray that you may be active in sharing your faith, so that you will have a full understanding of every good thing we have in Christ."

Sharing your faith is a fundamental step in your development as a Christian and disciple of Christ. As Peter directs in 1 Peter 3:15, "...set apart Christ as Lord in your hearts and always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have..." If you are a Christian, you are His witness, testifying about what God has done and is doing in your life with Him, guided by the influence of His Spirit.

All workshop participants are expected to see a change in the way they talk about their faith with those outside the family of believers and to develop a sense of confidence when confronted with challenges from faith outsiders who have a world view that lacks a true understanding of who Jesus is and the love He has for them.

When the Holy Spirit comes upon you, you will receive power and will testify of ME in "Boise, Idaho" and to the farthest parts of the world. (Acts 1:8)

The "sharing-your-faith-through-testimony" course is composed of four sessions of from 1 to 1-1/2 hours depending on the level of questions and/or discussion.

The Summer/Fall 2017 proposed course schedule is as follows:

September:

- 13 First Session: Why Should I Develop a Personal Testimony?
- 20 Second Session: Who Were You Before You Met Jesus?
- 27 Third Session: What Has Changed in Your Life Since You Met Jesus?

October:

- 4 Fourth Session: Why Should Anyone Else Want to Meet Jesus?
Course Evaluation & Next Steps

All sessions begin at 7 PM and end at 8:30 PM at FC. Chauffeurs are available.

From our DCE. . .

It has been a whirlwind of a summer. From Summer Camp, to Sunday school, to Youth Nights, to the firework stand, to the Car Wash/Yard Sale, to being the Spiritual Life Leader at Camp Perkins, and much more it has been a busy but blessed summer.

We had a great 8 weeks of summer day camp leaving an impact on youth and their families from our church and our community. While in Cascade for the eclipse we ran into a few families and their campers from Day Camp. It was great to see over 30 Jr. High/Sr. High & College age staff (Mostly from our church) connect with these campers and their families. We are already beginning to prepare for next summer.

Next Summer our youth will be doing a Servant Trip through Youthworks. As a group we will be picking where we will be serving in the next month. This is one of the things our church and community has been supporting our youth and chaperones through these fund raisers. Please continue to pray for this trip, and the 2019 National Youth Gathering and all of the people that will be attending these. And thank you for your continued support of the youth and the youth and children ministries here at the Church.

Please circle two dates on your calendar for this month: SEPTEMBER 10th & SEPTEMBER 17th.

SEPTEMBER 10th - We will have a prayer and praise service 5pm to 6pm. We are wanting our New Pastor to be on board with having a 3rd service & he can help us make sure we are doing it for the right reason and honoring God and our church community. But we are not stopping the progress we have been making. So join us for Prayer and Praise to our Savior and Creator! Jr. and Sr. High Youth Group follows it immediately at 6pm.

SEPTEMBER 17th - RALLY DAY 12:01pm to 2:00pm - join us to find out all that is in store for Ministry here at Friendship Celebration for the 2017-18 year! Sunday Morning Bible Class and Sunday school, Youth Groups (Jr. High, Sr. High, College, 3rd & 4th Grade, 5th & 6th Grade) Nurture Groups, Dave Ramsey Financial Planning, Camp Perkins Family & Youth retreats and so much more!

If you have any questions about Youth and/or Family Ministries here at FCLC please don't hesitate to talk with me.

In Christ,

CELEBRATION CHOIR MEMBERS

I am surprising & pleased at the interest in the Reformation joint choir project. Since I'm ordering the music for it, I have decided to invite our Celebration Choir to sing the same anthem for our own Reformation services at FCLC on October 29th. The performance would be scheduled in the service towards the end of the first service, and near the beginning of the second service; so that folks will have enough time to take a break before traveling to Nampa for the all valley Reformation service at 4pm. Please consider putting Sunday, September 3rd & Monday September 11th on your calendars for a 7pm rehearsal. We will take a two-week break since I will be out of town. We will begin practicing in Nampa the last Thursday of September as advertised previously. We will discuss a carpooling suggestion at the first rehearsal (these will be both men and women together, not sectionals as per usual). Also, since the choir will be meeting for several weeks anyway, could I also invite you to sing a special number for Pastor Matt's Installation service on Oct. 1st? Please email my gmail account at lhausch@gmail.com about your wishes. We will rehearse the anthem for Pastor Matt on Saturday September 30th at noon as well as at the early September practices. Many of you will already be there on Sept. 30th for food preparation, grounds clean-up etc. and hopefully it won't take more than an hour.
